

Washington JEWISH WEEK

EMBRACING THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT — Yevgenia Kremyanov left, who was injured on bus #20 in the 2003 terror attack in a Jerusalem neighborhood, holds a Purim basket of food with Modi Cohen, an Operation Embrace volunteer in Israel. Kremyanov made aliyah from Russia. She has been adopted by Bethesda synagogue Kol Shalom. Operation Embrace raised funds to send more than 100 mishloach manot baskets to injured survivors of terror and their families.

*This story was Published in the Washington Jewish Week on 4/1/2004
© Copyright, Washington Jewish Week*